Harbor College Students Offer Premiere Of 'Ticket to Paradise,' Hawaiian Film

"An Evening in Hawaii," featuring a premiere showing of a new, all-color motion picture about Hawaii titled "Ticket to Paradise," will be presented at Harbor College tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the college gymnasium, according to Leo N. Sirakides, coordinator of student activities.

Door prizes will include guest dinner tickets donated by the Ports O' Call Restaurant, and a lei of 300 Vanda orchids flown from Hawaii especially for the occasion. Other prizes and surprises are being planned.

Program will be sponsored by the Associated Men Students of Harbor College. A donation of 25c each will be asked for tickets, obtainable now in the student activities office or at the box office Monday night, beginning at 7:15 p.m.

"Ticket to Paradise," was filmed in Hawaii by Charles R. Morgan, professional photographer, former public relations coordinator and instructor of photo graphy at Harbor College, and now Dean of Students at East Los Angeles College.

Morgan and his family spent three months in Hawaii last summer making the picture, which has been edited to less than half its original length and takes ninety minutes running time.

The first half of the film deals with Oahu Island and is highlighted by the raising of the 50-star flag over Iolani Palace last July. The second half pictures the outer islands, with their beaches, fields, volcanoes, grottoes, falls, and flowers.

"Ticket to Paradise" is a different kind of travelogue about Hawaii," Sirakides said. "In this photographic study, Morgan's experiences as photographer, traveler, writer, and educator have enabled him to capture and present the beauty and excitement of the islands, and the warmth, humanity, and purpose of the people."

Old Campaigner To Be Guest of Young GOP'ers

Murray Chotiner, former campaign manager for Senator Richard Nixon and Senator William F. Knowland, will address the South Bay Young Republicans at the Fish Shanty in Waleria Wednesday at 8 p.m.

Meeting is open to the public, announced club president Jim Murphy.

The campaign manager and Beverly Hills attorney is widely regarded as one of the GOP's keenest political managers.

DINNED PARTY HELD

The Polynesian, tropical restaurant in Waleria, was chosen by Mr. and Mrs. Jack S. Bendet of Torrance as the setting for a dinner party when they recently entertained Mr. and Mrs. Leo Dolgin and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Farquhar.

EXOTIC DINERS

Mr. and Mrs. John Perea of Torrance were recent dinner guests at The Polynesian Restaurant.

Harbor College Hosts Local High School Girls

Harbor College was host Tuesday to 25 senior girls from Banning, Gardena, Narbonne, San Pedro and Washington high schools.

Occasion was Girls' Day in the school, observed annually as part of Girls' Week, sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's Clubs of America.

Activities of the day centered around the theme, "College and Me," and included a social hour, campus tours, class visits, a general meeting, luncheon and discussion period. Each guest was given an information packet which served as guide for the day and a souvenir of the college.

PARTICIPANTS

Dr. Maurine L. Holwerda, sponsor of the Associated Women Students of Harbor College, was in charge of Girls' Day on the local campus. She was assisted by Kathleen McNeice, president of AWS, and students Jane Wood, Linda de la Rosa, Nancy Ball, Valerie Truscott, Diane Farnum, Janet Taylor, Judy New, Ruth Brady, Shirley Sickinger, Carole Tichenor, Sandra Barone, Joan Robinson, Tomi Espe and Eileen McNeice.

Faculty participants were Jeanne Nichols, Dwight L. Garner, Don J. Rogan, Armine Janeves, Robert G. Wren, Carmen L. Marinella, John Vosbigian, Reuben G. Plaskoff, Wendell C. Black, John A. Grasham, J. Reyburn Hatfield, Glenn G. Gooder, Leo N. Sirakides and Merry Eschandi.

NHS Seniors Selected as Semi-Finalists

Six North High School seniors were recently named by the State Scholarship Commission as semi-finalist candidates for the California State Scholarships.

Selected on the basis of their scores on the Scholarship Aptitude Test, the six students are—Jay Lippman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Lippman of 3813 West 184th Place; Jeanne Knoblauch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Knoblauch of 16509 Cerise Avenue; William Capps, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Capps of 4204 West 178th Street; Kendall Spooner, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Spooner 4902 Cadison; Patricia Bryden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bryden of 17910 Doty Avenue; and Sam Pierce, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Pierce 17202 Elgar Avenue.

Candidates will now go through further screening and the final selections will be based on the high school scholastic record of the students as well as financial need.

Winners of the State Scholarships, which are given annually, will be announced later in the year.
